05 · Executive summary

Intact India resources support PVLR build and maintenance, RADAR base and live models, Risk Modeling, and other programme objectives as required.

Background

Pricing View of Loss Ratio (PVLR) was added as a workstream in 2022 to create an efficient process for pricing views where unavailable and enable comparisons across portfolios. RADAR is a strategic rating tool for UK CL and EU. The India team supports RADAR development, maintenance and price-accuracy testing, and provides resources and technical guidance for the Keystone model.

In scope

PVLR build and maintenance\nRADAR re-scorer build\nRADAR Live build and maintenance\nRADAR Live price testing and test-case generation\nSupport Keystone model building within Risk Modeling\nSupport other Pricing Sophistication projects

06 · Dependencies & risks

Dependencies: Pricing consultants and portfolio leads provide subject-matter and KPI inputs. Teams collaborate to define PVLR and rescoring requirements and validate data-mart data. Business queries should be resolved promptly.\nRisks: Client data transfers must comply with applicable data-protection laws. Share only necessary personal data, pseudonymise/anonymise where applicable, use secure transfer methods, and report suspected incidents immediately.

Required skills

People skills for stakeholder meetings and KPI agreement\nInsurance KPIs: top-line, conversion, WLR, RMI indices and rating strength\nSAS/WPS coding and data handling\nRADAR model build and monitoring\nTranslate business requirements into tasks\nMicrosoft Excel, VBA, pricing flows and claims development

Software required

SAS\nExcel\nRADAR\nTeams\nSharePoint\nCQE\nMicrosoft Office 365

Other notes

Project billed on a full-time employee basis. Monthly feedback meeting between project manager and business lead. Two months' written notice is required for service termination. Actual invoice is in INR; GBP values may vary with FX movement.

Declarations

1. Responsibility for compliance with local data-protection rules and regulations lies with the local businesses as mentioned in the Technical Service Level Agreements.\n2. Intact India retains relevant files for up to 2 years. The business should arrange longer retention if required.
